The first system of music consists of two staves. The upper staff is a grand staff with a treble clef, containing a series of chords and some melodic fragments. The lower staff is a bass clef staff with a melodic line that includes several eighth notes with accents. The key signature has one flat (B-flat).

The second system continues the piano accompaniment. It features a mix of chords and moving lines in both staves. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is present in the bass staff. The key signature remains one flat.

F.B.I.? Which F.B.I.? (post tweet)

The third system shows a change in dynamics. The upper staff has a melodic line with a dynamic marking of mf (mezzo-forte). The lower staff continues with chords and a melodic line, with a dynamic marking of p (piano) appearing later in the system. The key signature is still one flat.

The fourth system continues the piano accompaniment. It features a dynamic marking of f (forte) in the bass staff. The key signature remains one flat.

The fifth system includes dynamic markings of ff (fortissimo) and mf (mezzo-forte). The upper staff has a melodic line with slurs, and the lower staff has a rhythmic accompaniment. The key signature is still one flat.

The sixth system concludes the piece with a dynamic marking of ff (fortissimo). It includes a repeat sign (8) and a key signature change to three sharps (F#, C#, G#) in the final measure. The key signature remains one flat for the rest of the system.
